March 17th 2024

"The hour has come
for the Son of Man
to be glorified.
Amen, amen, I say
to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it
remains just a grain
of wheat; but if it
dies, it produces
much fruit."
John 12:23,24

"Ha llegado la hora
de que el Hijo del
hombre sea glorificado.
Yo les aseguro que
si el grano de trigo,
sembrado en la tierra,
no muere, queda
infecundo; pero si
muere, producirá
mucho fruto."
Juan 12, 23 y 24

Jesus Discourses with His Disciples by James Tissot
Circa 1890-1894

5TH SUNDAY OF
LENT
5^º DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

The promise made by the Lord in the 1st reading is very bold. He says that all people shall know Him, without having to be taught by others. The way people will know Him is through forgiveness of their sins. Remember, He is speaking to the Israelites: When they broke a commandment or law, they were isolated from the community. So the promise that God would place his law in their hearts meant they would be free to do God's will because they want to, not because they were feared punishment or rejection. Jesus says something similar in today's gospel. He tells the disciples that his crucifixion would draw everyone to Him. Now, Jesus' death showed that He took on the punishment for sins in place of us. By rising from the dead, He shows that we can rise from sin to a new life of faith and love. We experience that promise when we bring our sins to God. When we forgive people who have hurt us, we also help them to experience that love. We also help others to know God when we share or experience of being forgiven. The sacrament of Reconciliation gives us the assurance of God's forgiveness, as well as the experience. Along with the other sacraments, it help us keep God's love in our hearts. Tom Schmidt La promesa hecha por el Señor en la 1^{ra} lectura es muy audaz. Dice que todos lo conocerán, sin tener que ser enseñados por otros. La manera en que la gente lo conocerá es mediante el perdón de sus pecados. Acuérdate que está hablando a los israelitas: cuando rompían un mandamiento o una ley, quedaban aislados de la comunidad. Así que, la promesa de que Dios pondría su ley en sus corazones significaba que serían libres de hacer la voluntad de Dios porque quisieran, no porque temieran el castigo o el rechazo. Les dice a los discípulos que su crucifixión atraería a todos hacia El. Ahora, la Muerte de Jesús mostró que El asumió el castigo por los pecados en lugar nuestro, quienes lo merecemos. Al morir en la cruz, Jesús muestra cuánto nos ama Dios. Al resucitar del pecado a una vida nueva de fe y amor. Experimentamos esa promesa cuando presentamos nuestros pecados a Dios. Cuando perdonamos a las personas que nos han lastimado, también les ayudamos a experimentar ese amor. También ayudamos a otros a conocer a Dios cuando compartimos o experimentamos el perdón. El sacramento de la Reconciliación nos da la seguridad del perdón de Dios, y también la experiencia. Junto con los demás sacramentos, nos ayuda a mantener el amor de Dios en nuestros corazones.
